The Proposal:

When it comes to love, the old adage 'mother knows best' is true when it comes to Amanda Russell and Joe Wright. Amanda's mother had been one of Joe's college professors and encouraged the pairing for five years until it finally happened. When it did, it took less than a year for Joe to propose. On November 17, 2007, he proposed to Amanda at her home by blindfolding her and leading her into a room filled with flowers and candlelight.
