Extraordinary is an Experience

Kathy G & Company was built on a foundation of a passion of food, entertaining and a great gift for presentation, Kathy G Mezrano, the President and founder of the company has always had a love of giving parties. After attending Spring Hill College in Mobile, where she was always in the forefront of social activities, she worked in television in Atlanta planning events for national and international network celebrities. All of this experience eventually led to her success as one of the most popular caterers and event planners in Alabama.

Kathy G has served on the Board of Directors of the International Caterers Association and was recently awarded a Service Award from ICA. She is also a member of the International Special Events Society and her company has won industry awards from both associations. Her work has been featured in numerous magazines and trade publications such as Special Events, Catering Magazine, Southern Living and Southern Accents.

Experience that speaks for itself

In addition to over 20 years of experience offering off-premise catering in Birmingham and across Alabama, Kathy G & Company caters exclusively to the Birmingham Museum of Art, Park Lane, The Gardens Café at the Birmingham Botanical Gardens and the Alys Stephens Center.

The Birmingham Museum of Art is a grand, elegant space for hosting wedding receptions, rehearsal dinners and ceremonies. With it's sleek modern lines, the Terrace Café at the Museum offers a wonderful canvas to design your special event.

Park Lane by Kathy G. is a warm and inviting site for wedding receptions, rehearsal dinners and special occasions. It's conveniently located in Mountain Brook's English Village with easy access and plenty of parking. It's rich 1930's Chicago-style bar with vintage wood detailing and granite top, beautiful hardwood floors and side risers for seating provides a neutral color scheme for any palette.

The Gardens Café is a charming location for wedding receptions, rehearsal dinners, bridesmaid luncheons and showers. The bi-level café offers a mezzanine and patio dining as well. It's located at the Birmingham Botanical Gardens which provides ample parking. Several ceremony sites are available in the Gardens, not to mention it's frequently used for bridal portraits and family special photos.

Kathy G Designs is a full service design company that can create your dream wedding. Whether your wedding reception is small and intimate or a formal affair for hundreds of guests, Kathy G & Company will make sure it's unique and memorable.
